Mr. Carson's clause was rejected by a majority The House voted for the doing of the very thing which Lord Spencer, in the days when Lord Spencer took the liberty of thinking for himself, declared would be "mean and treacherous." If there be in England an honorable and high minded man Lord Spencer is that man Nothing would induce him consciously to sanction a base proposal or a base policy. But he is under the Gladstonian spell; his political con science in Mr. Gladstone's keeping, and Mr. Gladstone, himself a man of honor, and of high purpose, can, as we all know, convince himself of anything.

virtuous intentions of the Irish lenders be or be not a true view. The conclusive reply is that he is proposing to make one of two parties to a dispute

the final indee in his own cause

He has two remedies in mind for the injustice he now enacts. First, he hopes that the landlords, when they begin to feel the pressure of this process of plunder, will ery out, and will "use all the means they can to maintain a lively observation from British quarters on what the Irish Legislature may do." It is highly probable they will. But did you ever before now hear a legislator justify an iniquitous law on the ground that its victims might protest, and so cause it to be repealed, or demand redress or relief? Mr. Gladstone, who has always refused to pledge himself to deal with the land question during the three years' reserved period, now declares he has no hesitation in saying they ought to deal with the Irish land question in three years." The good American Gladstonian who has never made a critical study of his idol's methods of speech, may accept that, in a spirit of trust, as a pledge. If it were, there is no certainty that Mr. Gladstone would have the power to falfil it. There is no certainty that, a little time hence, he would have the will. He might have to explain as he has tried to explain his failures to fulfil other pledges, that though they were binding for the time, it rests with him to determine how long the time during which they are binding shall last. But it is not a pledge. It is at most the announcement of an obligation; whether of morals or of honor he does not say, nor does he say on whom it rests. It may be, of course, an obligation of morals or of honor without being an obligation of polities. Were he challenged for his neglect or repudiation of at, he might reply, as did the other day, with equal dignity and hardihood, that he and his colleague propose to rest under the imputation. But it is this admission of a vague moral obligation in the future, which he may not be either willing or able to recognize, and which is not even a pledge, that he offers to the Irish landlord as a safeguar G. W. S. against spoliation.

A BIG SPECIAL FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

PAIN'S EXHIBITION AT MANHATTAN BEACH TO NIGHT-ALL KINDS OF PYROTECHNICS.

The carnival of spectacle, fireworks and musiwhich will take place at Manhattan Beach this afternoon and evening will be in celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of Pain's pyrotechnic exhibitions on the beach. Manhattau has grown since the fireworks were first shown there. The long sweep of sand upon which thousands strolled from Norton's Poin' to and beyond the place where the Orienta! Hotel now stands, is all swept away. Pain has grown up with Manhattan, and so have the spectacles and fireworks which, season in and season out have contributed not a little to the popularity of the place as a resort for entertain ment and enjoyment.

As an expression or testimonial to the apprecia tion of the public for the exhibition; given in Pain's outdoor theatre, a programme has been ar ranged which, it is promised, shall surpass in attractiveness any previous display given there. Day in addition to the spectacle, and about forty strange pyrotechnic devices will be seen in the evening, together with submarine explosions. At night, near the close of the carnival, a balloon will be sent up, which, when about a mile up, will set the Star-Spangled Banner in fire in the air, with the sky as a background.

IN HONOR OF THE EMPIRE STATE.

PREPARING TO CELEBRATE NEW YORK DAY A THE FAIR-CHAUNCEY M. PEPEW TO DE-

LIVER THE ADDRESS OF WELCOME. Chicago, Sept. 1.-Four of the States which have made great displays in all departments at the Fair, and which have magnificent buildings of their own, will celebrate on a large and attractive scale within the next two weeks. The Empire State will lead next Monday with its celebration, Penn-sylvania, California and Ohio following in that order. The New-York people and officials connected with the Exposition have been reserving their strength for this day so as to create a big increase in the attendance, and show the world that New-York is in fact as well as name the Empire State of the North American Republic. Senator Foley and Senator Howland have great expectations, based upon correspondence, in regard vantage of low rates on the trunk lines to come here for the day their State will celebrate. The presence of Chauncey M. Depew, Governor Flower, Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan and other statesmen who have promised to attend will be a special attraction in itself. The address of welcome will be delivered by Mr. Depew. Governor Flower will respond on behalf of the State, and Director-General Davis comes next on the list of speakers. Joseph O'Connor, of "The Rochester Post-Express," will read a poem. The Governor will hold a public reception in the afternoon in the banquet hail of the State Building. There will be an invitation re-ception and dance in the New-York Building in ception and dance in the New-York Building in the evening.

Judge Ewing was asked to-day by ex-Judge Moran, counsel for the World's Columbian Exposition, to hear arguments on the motion to vacate the judgment entered yesterday by Judge Goggin continuing, for sixty days the Sunday opening injuction granted by Judge Stein, Judge Ewing consented, and it is probable all the counsel in the case will appear in court to-morrow and make arrangements for a final determination of the case. There is now little doubt that the National Compission will adjourn, either to-morrow or Monday, for a month. Secretary Dickinson received confidential advice from Washington yesterday to the effect that Secretary Carlisle would certainly refuse to pay the vouchers of commissioners if they remained an session longer.

There were 127,095 paid admissions to the World's Fair to-day.

NOTES OF THE STAGE. NOTES OF THE STAGE.

The Bijou Thestre, which has had its usual summer overhauling, reopers for the regular senson this evening, when Russell's Comedians will be seen in "The World's Fair Cfty Directory," the latest edition of this popular fairee comedy. The piece has been rewritten, and the songs, dances and other specialties will be new. The company includes Miss Amelia Glover, Mme. Mathilde Cottrelly, Miss Neilio Parker, Willis P. Sweatnam, William Cameroo, William B. Wood, William F. Mack, James Thoraton, Alexander Haig and Joseph Jackson and others. A matinee will be given an Monday, Labor Day.

The report that Marcus R. Mayer is not by the American tour of Mme. Patti this season is emphatically denied at Mr. Mayer's office.

Miss Loia Fogarty was married on Tuesday to tanislaus Strange, a well-known actor and dramatic Band at Manhattan Beach. The last concerts will be given on Labor Day. Special programmes will be given ach day, and numerous excellent soloists will assist. Since the trouble between Max Freeman and Sydney Resenfeld at the Casino on Thursday, in cornection wit the rehearsals of the latter's opera. "The Ruinmaker of Stria." Mr. Rosenfeld has announced that he intends to get an injunction against the performance of the opera, on the ground that Mr. Freeman's stage management has in-

ROBERT J. KNOTT BLAMED.

HE IS HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LONG. ISLAND RAILROAD DISASTER.

THE CORONER'S JURY SAYS HE IS GUILTY OF CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE IN DISPLAYING A WHITE LIGHT FROM TOWER NO. 5

WHILE A TRAIN WAS IN HIS BLOCK-THE COMPANY CENSURED.

The inquest into the Long Island Railroad disaster, conducted by Coroner Brandon at Newtown L. L. came to an end yesterday. The jury requires two hours to deliberate, and the verdict was "tha the deceased came to their death by shock caused by collision between a Rockaway Beach train and a Manhattan Beach train on the 26th day of August, 1893, at a point between signal blocks Nos. and 6 of the Long Island Railroad, and we find tha their deaths were due to the criminal negligence of Robert J. Knott, employed by the Long Island Rail road Company as a towerman at tower No. 5, or the night of the collision. We exonerate from sponsibility the train crews of both trains, and also the towerman stationed at tower No. 6. censure the practice of the Long Island Railroad Company for recalling a brakeman who has gon back from a train stopped for any cause up portion of the road where trains are run under short headway, the safety of which train-

The towerman, Knott, on whose shoulders it placed the responsibility for the loss of sixteen lives in the accident, is twenty-three years old native and a citizen of Kent County, England. Since his boyhood he has followed the sea, and as a sailor he was in the steamer France, which days, at the time the White Star steamer Naronl Rallroad Company May 15 last, as a flagman at versation he said yesterday that as a result of the service requiring him to stand in the hot sunlight from morning till night during the past summer He consulted a physician who recommended him to change his occupation. He applied to the inspector of the company, and was assigned to night duty in tower No. 5, where he had been a week when the accident occurred.

is understood that on Thursday night Knott talked with Coroner Brandon, and substantially admitted that without fully realizing the responsibility for his act, he had signalled to towerman 6 the complete passage of the Manhattan Beach train from his block to the succeeding one a fact which obviously produced the collision

Whether this admission was made or not, the testimony vesterday of Charles W. Hessner left o doubt that the signals from tower 5 to tower gave the assurance of proper clearance. Hessner s a one-armed man, and has occupied tower (since the block system was introduced on the Long Island Railroad, January 5, 1892. The tower, he testified, was in working order. During the fifteen minutes immediately preceding the accident. six or seven trains had passed. He had signalled three times to Knott, in tower 5, before he re ceived a clearance. It requires, ordinarily, said, about a minute to get a signal clearance. Therefore, when the Rockaway Beach train camhe gave a signal and let it through. Knott himably this fact had much to do his crimination. But he was nervous and, as h said, not familiar with the laws of the country, and was apprehensive that the fact that he was no a naturalized citizen might work to his preindice. He is evidently a man of timid dispo and the wonder is increased by a study of his characteristics that he was ever assigned by an official of the company to so responsible a place out training or education in the requirement of his duties.

Hugh O'Neill, the night watchman at the Haber man tin factory, caused a sensation by declaring that he had known of instances where towermer in that locality had been suspected of sleeping duty, and allowing trains to pass through blocks between midnight and 5 o'clock in the morning withou, regard to red or white signals being displayed. But the witness contradicted himhis signature that his whole story was discred-

James McCormick said that he had been in the employ of the Long Island Railroad as brakeman for the last four years; that he was the rear brakeman on the Manhattan Beach train that was run into. His train stopped east of block five After the train had passed block six he was sent out on the rear platform. When they stopped near out on the rear platform. When they stopped near block five he saw a red signal, and got off the train and went back four or five hundred feet. He looked around and saw a white light in tower No. 5. and was then signalled by the engineer to return, and did so. He did not watch the tower light signal as he ran back, and did not have time to go back far enough to place a torpedo on the track, according to the rules of the company, before he was signalled to return to his train. He had torpedoes with him, as he always carried them, and if he had had time to go back far enough to place a torpedo it would have prevented the collision. It was the testimony of this witness, probably, which led the jury to censure the company for the practice of recalling brakemen sent back from trains in distress.

The verifict was about that which was expected. Certain it is, however, that the towers as located on this curve are practically useless, as the lights according to the testimony of Engineer Concrit, of the Rocksway Beach train, can be seen only from the fireman's side of the engine.

The release of the engineers of the Rocksway Beach and Manhatan Beach trains, and Hesner, of Tower No. 6, was a source of gratification to witnesses at the inquest. The holding of Knott was regarded as a foregone conclusion. In styling his action "criminal negligence," the jury perhaps strained a point in favor of the company. The criminality, however, apparently existed in putting such an inexperienced man in such a responsible place. The position pays 149 a month, and twelve hours' service a day is required.

The Coroner called the prisoner to the desk and remanded him to the Queens County Jail without bail, pending the action of the Grand Jury, which meets September 12. Meanwhile, if District-Attorney Fleming approvex, bail may be accepted, as the charge will probably not go beyond manslaughter in some low degree.

HOWLAND'S DEATH PLOBABLY ACCIDENTAL. Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 1 (Special).-Acting ender instructions from Coroner Van Dyke and Prosecutor Ivins. Dr. George W. Brown performed an autopsy this afternoon on the body of Eden Howland, who was found drowned in a marl pit six miles from here. The physician found no evisix miles from here. The physician found no evidence of foul play. There was a slight scalp wound over the right temple, probably caused by a fall, but the skull was not fractured. The lungs were full of water, showing that death was undoubtedly caused by drowning. Heary Howland, the brother of the dead man, said to-night that he believed that there had been no foul play in the case. He thought that his brother had wandered away while laboring under temporary insanity, and had either thrown himself into the marl pit or had fallen in.

THE PRESIDENTS HEALTH.

HIS MALADY NOTHING TO BE FEARED. From The New-York World.

If the cares and labors he must undergo in the service of his country shall bring upon the President no more serious malady than that which the surgeons treated so successfully two months ago, he will leave the White House at the end of his term as robust a man as when he entered it.

BETTER TO HAVE HAD NO MYSTERY.

From The Philadelphia Inquirer
It would have been much better had no mystery been thrown about the affair. A simple operation at the White House, with no injunction of secrecy, would have made the facts known to the public, and no undue prominence would have been given the event.

STOP THE SENSATIONAL STORIES From The New-York Recorder.

Any attempt to distort the effects of any ordinary ailment from which the President may have suffered recently is unpatriotic and productive of evil under existing circumstances. We have had too many unnecessary scares to countenance for a moment a false and sensational rumor concerning the health of the Chief Executive of the Nation. NO USE TRYING TO SUPPRESS THE NEWS.

From The Hartford Post.

The case of President Cleveland shows the impracticability of efforts to keep secret or to be mysterious about matters which deeply concern the public in the private lives of their high public servants. The health of President Cleveland is a very important matter to the American people, and if anything is wrong the people will eventually find it out.

RENEWED STRENGTH FOR HIS DUTIES From The Boston Herald. The rest he has enjoyed as incident to this opera-tion is having the beneficial result that was an-ticipated, and will fit him for the discharge of fu-ture duties with renewed strength and energy.

HIS SERVICES NEEDED JUST NOW.

Any failure of the President's health will be a great blow to the Democratic Administration. His able, vigorous and powerful leadership is needed.

BOUND BY SUPERSTITION.

DEMOCRATS STILL SAY THE MINORITY SHOULD RULE THE MAJORITY

FRUITLESS ENDEAVORS IN THE HOUSE TO TAKE AWAY THE POWER OF THE HILBUSTER.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Sept. 1.-The Democrats in the House of Representatives still cling to the ancient superstition of their party faith, which requires them to uphold the right of the minority to rule the majority. Judging by present appearances, i will take a long time to overthrow that superstiion, which is held as sacred, if it is not so power ful among Democrats in Congress to-day as in the winter of 1860-61. It is true that the missionary work begun by the Republican major ity in the LIst Congress has not been altogether fruitless, but that educational processes when applied to Democrats are painfully slow, as well as omewhat uncertain, was clearly shown to-day when every attempt to curtail the power of a fill

The Boatner amendment, which was design oring any pending proposition to a vote after sufficient debate, was rejected by a yea-and-na; affirmative, against 120 in the negative-a Demo-cratic majority of 6 to 1 against the proposition. The adverse Democratic majority would have been much smaller, and the amendment would have been adopted, if it had not been for the desperate and unremitting efforts of the Democratic leaders to drive their followers back into the party traces, from which a good many of them were struggling to escape. Speaker Crisp was compelled to take the floor and deliver a fervent party appeal in order to recall the wanderers and enforce party discipline, and the other Democratic members of the committee on Rules and their assistants Sayers, Dockery, Holman, Richardson, McMillin thers were busy day and night hunting the stragglers and bringing them back into camp. 'argument" which they found most persuasive and effective was submitted in the form of a question 'Do you want to be Tom Reed's bedfellow' was every bit as logical as the old argument which as everybody remembers, was equally advanced with such force and emphasis long years ago by every Democrat who contended against a Republican, and which was always put in the form of dangehter or sister marry a 'nigger'."

In the present case the argument was all the more patent because it was addressed by Democrats to Democrats. Hence the Democratic vote for the Boatner amendment is by no means a fair gauge of the strength of Democratic sentiment in the House in its favor Mr. Boatner yesterday estimated that ment, and this estimate was probably not exag gerated, but, as the vote showed, more than two thirds of the Democrats who would have rejoicen to see the proposition adopted were either driven to vote against it on partisan grounds or per-suaded to "dodge" the question. The roll-can showed 127 absentees, of whom no less than seventy-six were Democrats and Populists

The Democrats who refused to swallow their convictions and obey the crack of the party lash were Messrs Bailey and Hutcheson, of Texas, Baldwin of Minnesota; Beltzhoover, of Pennsylvania; ner and Mayer, of Louisiana: Bower, of North Care-lina; Geary, of California; Harris and Hudson, of Kansas; Hayes, of Iowa; Lynch, of Wisconsin Mallory, of Florida; McDonnald and Springer, of Illinois, McRae and Nelli, of Arkansas; Ritchie, of Ohio; Stone, of Kentucky; Washington, of Tennessee, and Williams, of Mississippi. Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, who was absent, w also paired in favor of the amendment with Mr. Bunn, of North Carolina, who was opposed to it. In the course of the day several other amend-ments were offered by Democrats, as well as by Republicans, which, if adopted, would have measurably cripple! the filibuster. All of them were supported by the Republicans, and some of them reeived a few Democratic votes, but the filibusters and their friends were strong enough to defect every proposition to weaken in any degree power of a minority, however small and insignif-icant or by whatever motives inspired, to nullify the will of the majority, except in such cases as the three Democrats who compose the majority of the Committee on Rules shall deem it expe-dient to interfire. One of the amendments offered by Mr. Springer proposed to give to all of the com-mittee: which have the right to report at any time except the Appropriations Committee) the them to a vote that is now possessed by the Conforward by any and all committees. In the debate on this proposition, which was supported by Mr. Boatner and violently opposed by Mr. McMillin, who declared that he had never known "any good legislation to be defeated by fillbustering." Mr Kilgore sarcastically said to Mr Springer. "You want to have another business Congress." and May the latter's prompt retort. "I want Congr hodled in and recognized by the rules as they now stand, not more than one vote by year and nays (severand s. should be allowed on the same legislative day. Such a proposition would prevent the westing of hours and days-probabl; weeks-in fruitless and unnecessary roll-calls during a session of Congress, but it was promptly rejected by a party vote. As a quorum did not vote on the division, Mr. Dingley raised the point and gave the Democrats an "object lesson" by compelling a roll-call which consumed forty-five minutes. Mr. Reed offered two amendments, both of which were designed to eliminate certain motions which are recognized by the rules and are never used except for pairposes of obstruction. These amendments were rejected by a party vote in each case, which afforded Mr. Reed an opportunity to give the Democrats two more "object lessons" in succession, as a yes-and-may vote was required in each case in order to muster a quorum. There was no fillbustering, however, for every demand made was legitimate, and every Republican present who was not hound by a pair voted, and those who were paired would have done so if their votes had been necessary to complete the quorum. The Democratic majority thus deliberately placed itself on record three times in succession in favor of retaining and recognizing a series of motions whose sole object and functions are to strengthen the arm of the fillbuster, and also in favor of allowing an unlimited waste of time in calling the roll on such motions. a proposition would prevent the wasting of hours

CHAPLAIN STOECKER GOES TO CHICAGO

VICTORIA, AND IS TO MAKE A

ERCTURE TOTAL Dr. Adolf Stoecker, formerly court chaplain to the Emperor of Germany and a noted leader of the anti-Semile party, arrived here yesterday from Hamburg on the Hamburg-American steamer Au-gusta Victoria. Within an hour after the steamer came to her pier, early sesterday morning. Dr. Stoccker was on his way to Chicago. He was met at the pier by several men who had been his papils in Germany. Dr. Stoecker attracted much ashore in Commodore Miller's launch. Secretary pupils in Germany. Dr. Stoecker attracted much attention on board the steamship. He delivered a sermon to the saloon passengers, and also to the passengers in the steerage. Dr. Stoecker will remain in this country for several months. He will speak at the World's Fair, and deliver a number of lectures in various parts of the United States Dr. Stoecker is fifty-three years old. He is of with the must and rain, and the return to the ship medium height, with gray and short side whiskers. He has a strong, positive expression, and a squarely set jaw. Dr. Stocker is the son of a non-commissioned officer of the German army. He whaleboats, won by Lieutenant Duncan's crew, and was graduated from the gymnasium and then attended the University of Berlin, where he comtended the University of Berlin, where he com-pleted his theological studies. When the Franco-Prusslan war broke out he went to the front as an army chaplain, and at the close of the conflict he was stationed at Metz. In 1876, he was called to become court chaplain, which office he held for several years. He is better known as a politician. He is bitterly opposed to the Jewish people, and is one of the anti-Semite party in Germany. Among the other passengers of the Augusta Victoria was Ernest Schuette, a German Govern-ment official. He is a friend of Henry Villard, and was met at the pier by Mr. Villard's secretary.

LOYAL REPUBLICANS TO HAVE AN OUTING. The annual family outing of the Hell Gate Republican Club, of the XXIVth Assembly District, will be held on Monday (Labor Day). The steambout will leave East Eighty-sixth-st., at 9.20 a. m Ether's Marine Band will furnish the music and there will be all kinds of outdoor games one-half mile dash, fat man's race, swimming match, shooting match, rowing match, etc. Each lady present will receive a fine pin as a souverir, and there will also be a prize drawing for the fate. also be a prize drawing for the fair sex. The committee who have charge have made all arrangements, and have selected some handsome prizes, and are doing all in their power to make this the est successful outing in the history of the club All the members will meet at the clubhouse, No. All the memories are need at the chibnouse, So.
1,629 First-ave., on the morning of the outing, and march in a body to the boat. The Committee of Arrangements are: Louis H. Bold, chairman; James
C. Tishart, Alexander Sharp, Harry C. Holt, Fred
Greiss, Irving Torrey, Adolph Reiman, Karl Hahn.
Samuel Garretson and John Everding.

GOOD RACING IN THE RAIN.

THE TROTS AT FLEETWOOD KEPT UP DE SPITE THE DOWNPOUR.

AN EXCITING CONTEST IN THE 2.21 CLASS CHARLEY GREEN AWARDED FIRST PLACE. Fleetwood Park made another record yesterday at its trotting meeting-not a speed record, but one that will appeal with peculiar significance to the New-York public, which is so habituated to the rain-or-shine" policy of the running tracks. The rots at Fleetwood were begun, continued and endd through an almost continuous downpour-the first time, as far as can be learned, that such a course has been adopted and carried through suc-cessfully. From 2,000 to 2,500 people were on the rounds. It was a bit of extremely bad luck for Dougherty when his horse was injured, for he stood o win third money anyway, and might have won he race, for which he started favorite, His home is in lows, and the accident leaves him with a sich horse, with no money and with home 2,000 miles away. The committee, learning of this, not only refunded Dougherty his entrance money, but took up subscription for him, which netted a goodly sum The 2:24 trot was one of the most exciting con final heat and the race to Charley Green, after Kingwood had finished a head in front, was strictly in accordance with the rules.

The postponed free-for-all pace was first d. Flying Jib was the favorite 5 to 3 on. Jib led at the half, to 3 on. Jib led at the half, Doble keeping Manager well up; both drivers used their whips freely. Turning into the backstretch, Kelly carried Doble wide, and when the latter pulled out to pass Flying Jtb. Kelly pulled across him and cur him off, causing Manager to break. Doble lost his temper, and, setting sail for Flying Jib, on a dead overtook Kelly at the half, and as he passed slashed him across the face with his whip, drawing the blood.

tests of the week, and the decision which gave th

In the same heat Vitello ran into Blue Sign, cutting her down and injuring a tendon. Blue Sign finished behind the flag, but was placed fourth. But he was injured so much that Dougherty drew the fast gelding, which really had a good chance to win the race. Kingwood drew the pole, Charley Green, the choice in the betting, winning the first two heats. the next Green was at a prohibitive price, but he broke a few lengths from the start and fell Kingwood was now favorite at 2 to 1 on in the pools and 3 and 4 to 1 against Charley Green was an offer in the books. Stewart, who sat behind Green in the fifth heat, set a clip that carried Kingwood to a break at the eighth. Near the half Kingwood broke again, and again made up a half Kingwood broke again, and again made up a lot of ground directly he caught. Coming up the hill, the two heat-winners were leading. Charley Green in front all down the stretch till within three lengths from the wire, where Fowler made a brilliant drive with Kingwood, and showed his nose in front right under the wire. By reason, however, of his breaking, Kingwood was set back, and the heat given to Charley Green, who had never lifted his nose. Summaries: FREE-FOR-ALL-PACING-PURSE $2,000.

Manager, gr. s., by Notwood—Carrie, by Greerge Wilkes (Doble) 4 2 2 1 1 Piving Jth, b. g. by Algona (Kelly) 1 1 3 5 3 Vitello, blk. s. (Bever) 5 5 4 2 2 2 Blue Nign, b. g. Dougherty) 3 3 1 4 de Roy Wilkes, br. s. (Davies Carrier, 1992) 2 4 5 3 de Time—2 09, 2 073, 2 09, 2 093, 2 11, 2 133, "HARTFORD PURSE" STAKE FOR THREE-YEAR-OLD TROTTERS-$10,000. Margare, to c. by Baron Wilkes Spanish Maiden, by Happy Medium (Doble) Double Cross bits, f. by Sable Wilkes (Goldsmith), 2-2-2 Time 2 (1984), 2 (1814), 2 (1715).

2 24 CLASS-TROTTING-PURSE $1,500. Charley Green, ch. g., by Prator (Daly and Stewart) 1 1 2 2 br E. by Kentucks Dictator | Powter | P

REALIZATION PURSE FOR FOUR-YEAR-OLDS-TROTTING STAKE $2,000 Gray Dawn, gr. f. by Startle Stinson King Benton, ch. c. Carpenter; Rupert Gillig, b. c. (McDonaid) McTvor, br. c. (Gibbs) Rupert collie, b. (Gibbs) Malvor, br. c. (Gibbs) and Swan Billy Wilton, blk. c. (Snow and Swan Time 2 23, 2 26, 2 27). Four hours will suffice to dry ou; the track; the wetting of last night will improve the going.

great sport, with the 2:12, 2:22 and 2:28 trot, and the adverse in fast time. The track record was again lowered 14 seconds to-day by Cleveland 5, who paced the third

2 38 CLASS TROTINA PURSE #500. a round of applicate.

An amendment offered by Mr. Dingley, providing that on certain dilatory motions, which are em-

A disputen was received from Milwaracce last night wants said that Michael F. Dwyer, the well-known racing man, hid purchased the Fountain House at Wankesha, Wis., for $330,000 and that the general opinion was that he would build a racetrack in the neighborhood. The truth of the report is doubted in New-York City. Eacing has not been extremely prespended this year, and it is no believed that Mr. Dwyer could have secured the necessary amount of money to purchase the hole. He already Las large soms of money invested in Florida.

THE NAUAL RESERVES TO RETURN TO-DAY

PRESERVED BY THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF

THE NAVY AND NEW YORK CITY OFFICIALS
On board the U.S. S. New-Hampshire, Sept. L.
Assistant Secretary of the Navy McAdoo reviewed the First Naval Battalion this afternoon in a drizzling rain and damp easterly wind. The men J. W. Lane.

3 M. Soan. Soan. Soan. Sloan. Also and Sloan. Also appears Stokes, Alexander E. Orr. Stephen V. White, Arthur R. Claffin, Lanes McCreer, John W. Murray, J. W. Lane. drizzing rain and damp easterly wind. The men-left the New-Hampshire at $30 in their cutters drizzling rain and control of the New-Hampshire at 4:20 in their cutters and whaleboats, which were towed by the tug and whaleboats, which were towed by the tug and whaleboats, which was point opposite the polo field, on the Pulver to a point opposite the polo field, on the east side of Oyster Bay. Scarcely had the boats east side of Oyster Bay. Scarcely had the boats was Simusons, Woodbury Langdon, Committee: pear Sirs. I am in receipt of your kind letter of the which you do me the honor, in behalf of the masthead was the municipal flag. Colonei George B. McClellan, President of the New-York Board of Aldermen; Willis Holly, representing Mayor Gilroy, and a number of their friends were

The Pulver and her tows slowed down and the McAdoo and Lieutenant Schuetze, of the Navy, accompanying them. In the mean time the men had landed a short distance below and were already marching toward the polo grounds for a review and dress parade. These functions were concluded about 6:30, everybody being pretty well disgusted with the mud and rain, and the return to the ship the second between five cutters, won by Lieutenant Stayton's crew. A number of sailing and swimdoned owing to the disagreeable weather.

The chase of Lieutenant Greene and his division by Lieutenant Duncan across Center Island has caused a great deal of discussion on board, and it is difficult to say which of the two were captured Lieutenant Greene landed to the westward Center Island about 3 o'clock Wednesday, Center Island about 2 o'clock Wednesday, and Lieutenant Duncan landed to the eastward one hour later. By nightfall Lieutenant Greene had succeeded in transporting his boats across the island on rollers. The men bivouscked for the night. Lieutenant Greene's men sleeping in a stable and Lieutenant Duncan's men in the same, with sails for a covering. Lieutenant Duncan's men say that they surprised the enemy while asleep and captured all of their boats, forcing them to send to the New-Hampshire for aid. On the other hand, Lieutenant Greene's men declare that they were not surprised, but that Duncan had held up a flag of truce, and they supposed that hostilities had ceased. It was under this impression that they went to sleep and their boats were captured. To-morrow the New-Hampshire will get up her anchor and he towed to East Twenty-eighth-st, and the cruise of 1833 will pass into history.

Corning, N. Y., Sept. 1.—The Hill faction of the Democratic County Committee met at Addison to-day and elected L. L. Kendall, of Corning; G. W. Streeten G. W. Strong, of Canisteo, and J. F. Murray, of Tuscarora, an executive committee for the 11d Assembly District of Steuben County. The cleveland faction held their meeting in July and also elected an executive committee. A HINDOO THEOSOPHIST COMING HERE. Madison-ave, and Twenty-ninth-st., for the next almost an or until the old armory can be repaired.

GANENDRA NATH CHAKRAVARTI WILL SPEAK IN THIS CITY AND AT THE WORLD'S

PAIR CONGRESS OF RELIGIONS. Among the passengers on board the American Line steamer Paris, which is due to arrive here to-day, is a tall, stout East Indian, who is on his way to Chicago to represent his native at the Theosophical Society's Congress, which will

GANENDRA NATH CHAKRAVARTI. held on September 15 and 16, being a part of proceedings of the World's Fair Department of Religion. The East Indian is unknown in this country, but at his home in Allahabad, the capital of the Northwest Provinces, Hindostan, he is a well-known man, being a professor of mathematics by education and profession, and a Brahmin by birth. His name is Ganendra Nath Chakravarti. He is a fine orator, has complete command of the English language, his manners are those cultivated European, and he is a member of the Indian section of the Theosophical Society. Professor Chakravarti is scheduled to speak at the regular Sunday evening meeting osophical Society, at No. 144 Madison-ave., on tember 5, he and Mrs. Annie Besant will address the meeting at the same place, in place of the usual syllabus discussion. At the World's Fair discussion the first and seventh sections of the programme. "Theosophy Defined," and "Theosophy and Ethics," will be treated by Professor Chakravarti and Mrs. Besant. He will also speak on "Theosophy Historically Considered," his lecture being based on the Sacred Books of the East. "Philosophy and Psychology of Theosophy," and "The Organized Life of the Theosophical Society."

Another representative from the far East to the Congress is Hevavitarana Dharmapala, a Buddhist member of the Theosophical Society, who has been invited by the officials to speak on "Theosophy as Underlying all Scriptures." ous discussion. At the World's Fair discussion the

IN HONOR OF CHARLES STEWART SMITH

MEMBERS OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND OTHERS WISH TO GIVE HIM A DINNER-

MR. SMITH'S REASONS FOR DECLINING. An extremely high compliment was paid to Charles Stewart Smith, president of the Chamber of Commerce, by citizens of New-York last February, when it was proposed to give a dinner in his honor. The following letter was sent to him: CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

New-York, February 1, 1803. Charles Stewart Smith, esq., President Chamber of Com-

Dear Sir: The undersigned, members of the Chamber 1 1 2 2 1 of Commerce, and others, recognizing your long and valued 9 3 1 1 2 service in many ways to the commercial and industrial 3 2 3 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ interests of New-York, respectfully tender you a banquet 5 9 8 7 at Deimonico's at such time as may be most convenient 4 7 3 3 4 to you. We intend this to be a cordial welcome home 9 8 4 8 from your journey around the world at this interesting period in the history of commerce, and we carnestly hope that nothing will prevent your acceptance of this invitation.

You are justly regarded as a leading representative of our most intelligent and public-spirited merchants, and one whose enterprise is not restricted to the pursuits of private gain, but applies as well to the detempment of the highest interests of the city. We enjoy from you, as a result of your travels in foreign. Oldes, in-formation at once valuable and instructive to the old and influential association over which you have pre-sided for six years with commendable grace and in-

Among those who signed the letter were;

George G. Williams, Henry W. Cannon, Gustav H. Schwab, A. D. Juilliard, William Steinway, Horreo Gusseil, Henry O. Havemeyer, William H. Perkins, Eugene Kelly, James W. Alexander, Sigourney W. Fay, Orando B. Potter, John Hall, John Claffin, bn Sloane. orace Porter Edward S John Hall, Samuel P. Avery, Roland P. Knoedle Gunther. F. Frederic Gunther, Daniel Howlington, Ritdseve Biskeman, Edward H. Perkins, F. S. Van Rensselaer Cruger, Joseph H. Choate, William H. T. Hughes,

Samuel P. Avery.
Isoland P. Knoedler,
Isidor Straus.
Zishop Henry C. Potter,
John D. Torry.
Affred R. Waitney.
Austin Corbin.
Theodors A. Havemeyer,
J. Seaver Pam.
Kussell Sage.
John R. Parxon.
Joseph J. O'Dononue,
Whitelaw Reid,
Henry Villard.
James C. Carter.
Idward Cooper.
Honry M. Lagler,
Honn Harson. Rhoades,
Prank K. Hain.
F. Huntington,
Marvelle W. Cooper,
Idward W. Toler,
Idward N. Talier,
Isaniel G. Rollins,
William Brockfield, Fdward N. Tatier, baniel G. Rollins, William Prookheld, John H. Starin, Flihn Root, William M. Evarts, Oscar S. Straus, William F. Havemeyer, Warner Miller, Prayton Ives, William F. Cochrin, George M. Pullman, Richard Buttle, Sin am H. Robertson, Andrew Carnegie Stewart L. Woodford, Charles R. Flint. Daniel F. Appleton, Charles A. Dana, John D. Rockefeller, Charles H. Ropes, George Wilson.

February I, in which you do me the honor, in behalf of a large number of citizens of New-York, to ask my acceptance of a banquet upon my return home.

In reply thereto I her to say that the names attached comprise in a large measure the men who assert and maintain the supremecy of the metropolis. They are representative of all that is best and most conspicuous, not only in the comparison of the metropolis. not only in the commercial and financial, but also i religious, legal and literary circles of New York. cannot conceive that anything that I have ever done deserves this high compliment, and I will not attempt to discusse the pride and pleasure with which I have received it. You have placed me under bonds to per-form more faithfully the duties incumhent upon a citi-zen of this city, in which it has been my privilege for compelled to forego the pleasure which an acceptance of your invitation would afford.

I beg of you, centimen, to receive for yourselves and to convey to those associated with you, my sense of profound gratitude for this expression of their confidence.

AMERICAN EAR ASSOCIATION'S NEW OFFICERS
Milwaukee, Sept. 1.—The closing session of the American Bar Association was held this morning. The officers nominated by general council were elected as follows: President, Thomas M. Coole, Michigan; Secretary, John Hinkley, Baltimore; Treasurer, Francis Rawle, Philadelphia (reelected.) The list of vice-presidents includes one representative from nearly every State in the Union. Among them are Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Indiana; Thomas Dent, Illinois, James M. Lewis, Missouri; Robert D. Benedict, New York, and Burke Corbett, Ohio. It was decided to award no gold medal this year.

Portigin mails for the week ending September 2 will close promptly in all cases) at this office as follows:
SATURDAY—At 5-30 a. m. for France, Switzerland, Turkey, per s. s. La Boursone, via Havre; at 6-30 a. m., for Germany direct, per S. S. Ebb. via Bremen letters for other parts of Europe, via Southampson and Promes, must be directed per Elben's at 6-30 a. m. for Europe, per s. s. Campenia, via Queenstown (letters for Germany, France, viaterland, Italy, Spain, Fortugal and Turkey must be directed per Campania'); at 7-30 a. m. for Netherland, Italy, Spain, Fortugal and Turkey must be directed per Campania'); at 7-30 a. m. for Scherland, Italy, Spain, Fortugal and Turkey must be directed per Campania'); at 7-30 a. m. for Scherland, Italy, Spain, Fortugal and Turkey must be directed per Spain and Turkey must be directed per Campania'); at 11 a. m. for Scherland, Italy, Spain, Fortugal and Campenia'); at 11 a. m. for Campania', and Campenia', a The officers nominated by general council were elected as follows: President, Thomas M. Coole, Michigan; Secretary, John Hinkley, Baltimore; Treasurer, Francis Rawle, Philadelphia (reelected.) The list of vice-presidents includes one Union. Among them are Ex-President Benjamin-Harrison, Indiana; Thomas Dent, Illinois; James M. Lewis, Missouri, Robert D. Benedlet, New York, and Burke Corbett, Ohio. It was de-

OBITUARY.

THE REV. DR. JOHN CUNNINGHAM. London, Sept. 1.-The Rev. Dr. John Cunninghe died from diabetes at his home in St. Andrew's, Scotland, this morning. He had been ill for months. Dr. Cunningham was born at Paisley in 1812.

He studied at the University of Glasgow for four sessions, and was under the instruction of Sir William Hamilton, Professor Wilson (Christopher and Dr. Chalmers, in Edinb completing his theological studies in Glasgow, he was licensed as a preacher in March, 1845. In 1859 he published "The Church History of Scotland"; in 1888, "The Quakers," and in 1874, "A New Theory of Knowing and Known." He wrote volumalso for "The Edinburgh Review," "Macn Magazine," and "The Westminster Review." received the degree of D. D. from Edinburgh in 1860, and of LL. D. from Glasgow in 1886. In the latter year he was appointed by the Crown to be Principal and Primarius Professor of Divinity and St. Mary's College, St. Andrew's.

CALEB S. WOODHULL

Calch S. Woodhull, a lawyer in this city, died yester day at his home, No. 46 Monroe Place, Brooklyn. He was sixty-six years old and was born at Huntington, L. I. When he was two years old his father removed to Brooklyn. His early education was received in that city, Later he went to Williams College, from which he was graduated in 1818. His study of law was pursued with the firm of Bradley & Beckwith. He began his practics in 1850. His office in recent years was at No. 160 Nassau-st. Mr. Woodhull devoted himself especially to real estate law and the searching of titles. His home for many years was on Brooklyn Heights, but he lived a quiet life and took little part in public afairs, although he had a wide circle of friends. His death was due to he had a wide circle of friends.

congestion of the liver. He left a wife and one son.

The funeral will take place at 4 p. m. on Monday. Dr.

The funeral will take place at 4 p. m. on Monday. The Charles Cuthbert Hall will conduct the services. burial will be at Huntington.

SAMUEL H. BALDWIN.

Samuel H. Baldwin died at his home, No. 608 High years ago and was graduated from Amherst College in 1801. He enlisted as a private in Company K, New-Jersey Volunteers, became second licutenant, and then first Heufenant of Battery B, 1st Regiment, New-Jersel Artillery, and was afterward captain of Company F, 13th Artillery, and was afterward captain of Company F, 13th Regiment, New-Jersey Volunteers. After the war Mr. Ealdwin was admitted to the bar in Newark. For twelyp years, from 1881 to 1893, he was a member of the Newark Board of Education. He leaves a wife and a son, Edward H. Ealdwin. The funeral will be held on Monday next. Mr. Ealdwin was a Republican who made many speeches for his party.

Plymouth, N. H., Sept. I.-William G. Billings, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, 1. O. O. F., of New-Mampshire, died to-day of diphtheria, aged forty-one fears.

Mr. Billings was elected Grand Master last October, after having served in all the other chairs of the order.

He was one of the best-known and most popular Ode Fellows in the State. He was also prominent in Masonic circles, a Past Master of St. John's Lodge and Past Com mander of De Witt Clinton Commandery, Knights Templas HONORS FOR FATHER VAN RENSSELAER.

The Rev. Henry Van Rensselaer, who has been well known in connection with the work of the St. Francis Xavier Church and the Xavier Club, which he founded, will leave this city shortly for Frederick, Md., where he will remain for at least a year. Last night the members of the club-gave to him a well-filled purse as a token of of the club gave to him a well-micel purse as a town of their appreciation of his work in their behalf. The presentation was made by Edward Maguire, president of the club. The literary society of the club met last night and passed resolutions thanking Father Van Rensselaer for his services in its behalf. On Thursday night a dinner was given to him by the members of the club at Wallace's, Fifth-ave, and Nineteenth-st. Edward A. Hoey made the walls served to which Father Van Rensselaer responded. main speech, to which Father Van Rensselger response

FOX HUNTERS FORM AN ASSOCIATION Lexington, Ky., Sept. 1.-The National Fox Hunters' Association was organized here yesterday with 100 charter members. The officers are: President, Admiral James E. Jouett, United States Navy; R. D. Williams, Francis J. Hogan, E. F. Clay and William Huffstetter, vice-presidents; H. D. Means, secretary and treasurer.

Straining and Racking your Lungs and Throat with a rasping Cough, is but poor policy. Rather cure yourself with Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant, excellent remedy for Asthma and Bronchitis.

now ready for inspection and sale. ESPENSCHEID.

BALDWIN-At Newark, N. J., on Friday, September 1st, Samuel Hill Baidwin, aged 52 years. Fineral services at his late residence, No. 508 High-st., Newark, on Monday, September 1th, at 2 o'clock p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. FINCH-Suddenly, at Prekskill, N. Y., August 30, Edward B. Finch, of 29 East 77th-st., New-York, in the 69th year of his age. Funeral services at the residence of Urlah Hill, ir., Pauld-ing-st., Pekskill, Saturday, at 1 p. m. HEENFIELD ('n Thurs'd'), August 31st, 1893, James H. Greenfield, husband of Mary C. Storms, in his 5:d

year.

Services Monday, September 4th, at his late residence, 24

Hamilton-st. East Orange, N. J., on arrival of 10:10

a. m. train, D., L. & W. R. R., from Barclay-st.

Interment at convenience of family.

Money Port 607, G. A. R., ent The members of James Monroe Port 607, G. A. R., end War Voterans of the 22d Regiment, N. Y. S. M., are invited to attend.

CHAS. G. DOBBS, Commander.

GHAS. G. DOBBS, Commander.

JEWETT-Suddenly, at Nyack-on-Hudson, August 30th, 1893, Richard Dickinson Lewett, ir., youngest son of Richard Dickinson and Eliza M. Jewett, and grandson of the Rev. Dr. A. E. Lawrence Jewett, and the late Consul-General F. Leopold Schmidt.
Washington papers please copy.

LAIN-At Hurleyville, New-York, Wednesday, August
30th, 1893, George T. Lain, ngel 40.
Funeral services at his late residence, 146 South Portland-ave., Brooklyn, 2-30 p. m.

PERINE-On Taugsday morphus, August 31st, Eliza. PERINE-On Taursday meralag, August 31st, Eliza, wife of Cornelius L. Perine. Funeral services at her late residence, Garretson's, S. I., on Sunday, September 3d, at 4 o'clock p. m. Interment private.

Interment private.
Carriages at Garretson's on the arrival of the 3 o'clock
Loat from New-York.
STEARNS-Accidentally drowned at Murray Bay, Canada, on August 31st, Charles Nye Stearns, only son of Seargent P. and Hargaret B. Stearns, of Mondeal, Canada, and formerly of Newark, New-Jersey, aged 22 years. THORP—At Saratoga Springs, N. Y., on Thursday, the 31st of August, 1803, Mrs. Mary Thorp, of Brooklyn, in the 77th year of her age, Funeral services at West Charlton, Saratoga County, N. Y. VAIL—At Stamford, Conn., on Thursday evening, August 21st, Sanford, son of the Rev. R. P. H. and Mary S. Vail, and student in Williams College, in the 21st year of his age.

Funeral will be held from First Pre-byterian Church on Monday, at 4 p. m.

Friends of the family invited to attend.

WOODHULL-At his residence, 40 Mouroe Place, Brook-lyn, Caleb Smith Woodhull, Friday morning, September Notice of funeral h reaft r.

KENSICO CEMUTERY, Harlem Railroad; 48 minutes from Grand Central Depot; new private station at enkance. Office 16 East 424-st. Telephone call 556 38.

Special Notices.

MRS. MeeLrath's HOME-MADE PRESERVED BRANDIES, CANNED AND SPICED FRUITS AND JULLIES.

PURE RED CURRANT JELLY A SPECIALTY.
Everything put up in class and kept until fall. For prices, perferences, &c. address Mrs. SARAH S. MeeLRATH, 303 Degraw-st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

rener this city, in which it has been my privilege for more than forty years to find a home.

Inneanch as the annual dinner of the Chamber is so soon to take place, and in consideration of the disturbed financial conditions which prevail so extensively. I feel compelled to forego the pleasure which an acceptance of your invitation would afterd.

I beg of you, gentiumen, to receive for yourselves and to convey to those associated with you, my sense of profound visiting for this expression of their confidence.

York, and Burke Corbett, Ohio. It was decided to award no gold medal this year.

A TEMPORARY HOME FOR THE OLD GUARD.

A meeting of the members of the Old Guard was held at the Armory last night to consider plans for the selection of new headquarters until the old armory, which was partially destroyed by the a few days ago, has been repaired. The meeting was well attended. Most of it was devoted to fluiding out what the losses were. The members of the organization who were present were called upon to the indirection who were present were called upon to the members of the organization who were present their most of the members of the organization who were received from National Guard regiments, clubs, hotels and owners of halls. It was decided to rent the Section flittle Hall, at CHARLES W. DAYTON, Postmates.